Don't worry if the old John Denver hit Rocky Mountain High pops into your thoughts when staying at Braeview. You get rocks, you get mountains, and you get high on the sheer delight of a boutique retreat set in gardens that would leave Adam and Eve gasping.

There are three choices tailored for couples. Reflections Cottage, with its formed-earth walls, seclusion and roomy interior, has to be the pick – it has views of Mount Bogong through picture windows (and from the double spa), a log fire and a private garden (with pizza oven). There's also the romantic Studio Apartment with its ensuite spa and log fire – the perfect spot to snuggle up – or you can luxuriate in the main dwelling's spa-equipped bedrooms.

Host Isla MacLeod's magnificent breakfasts (try pancakes with caramelised bananas or porridge with panache) will set you up for High Country activities and you can book in for a sumptuous dinner. Attention to detail and loads of little extras (like the wine and nibbles list) make Braeview an award-winning experience.

Location: 345km or four hours northeast of Melbourne. Map 5. Melway 922 G9. HEMA RA 49 E10.

Facilities: In-house B&B ensuite spa rooms (lounge, fire, cable TV); studio apartment and cottage (each with fire, cable TV, DVD; kitchen); cottage with private garden. Dinner by arrangement. Full à la carte breakfast served in B&B; full breakfast provisions in studio and cottage.
